

HIGHEST HONOUR

Wan Azizah conferred Eminent Educator Award

PUTRAJAYA: Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail, wife of the prime minister, was conferred the Eminent Educator Award by Sultan of Perak Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah.

The award is from the College of Physicians Malaysia.

The ceremony took place during the Inaugural Membership of the Royal College of Physicians (MRCP) and Parallel Pathway Conferment Ceremony held here yesterday.

At the event, Sultan Nazrin presented the conferment certificate to the former deputy prime minister.

The Eminent Educator Award is the highest honour bestowed by the college, recognising exceptional contributions to education in parallel pathway medical training.

Sultan of Perak Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah presenting the Eminent Educator Award by the College of Physicians Malaysia to former deputy prime minister Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail at the MRCP Conferment Ceremony 2025 in Putrajaya yesterday. BERNAMA

PIC

“Today, we are especially honoured to present the Eminent Educator Award to Dr Wan Azizah in recognition of her exemplary contributions and steadfast support during the post-specialist training phase, support that has been instrumental to the success and longevity of the Parallel Pathway in Malaysia,” College of Physicians Malaysia president Datuk Seri Dr Paras Doshi said.

Present were Chief Secretary to the Government Tan Sri Shamsul Azri Abu Bakar and Health director-general Dr Mahathir Abd Wahab.

Dr Wan Azizah holds a medical degree from the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland and completed here postgraduate training in Ophthalmology at the Royal College of Ophthalmologists (United Kingdom). Bernama