KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 7 (Bernama) -- PAS' central committee decided Sunday to meet with the Selangor Islamic Religious Department (Jais) and Damansara Utama Methodist Church (DUMC) to get firsthand information on the recent raid of the church.

Speaking to reporters after the committee's monthly meeting here, PAS president Datuk Seri Hadi Awang said it was necessary to ascertain what really happened before the party could make its stand on the matter.

Hadi said PAS secretary-general Datuk Mustapa Ali would organise the meetings and set the dates and venues.

On Wednesday Jais raided the church in Petaling Jaya on information there were Muslims present at a dinner in its premises.
