PUTATAN, Aug 11 (Bernama) -- Sabah Deputy Chief Minister Datuk Seri Yahya Hussin said that in practicing the right of freedom of the people or democracy, there must also be limitation to ensure peace and security in the country.

"In democracy, there is also a limit. Democracy does not tell us to riot and destroy (property) all over the place, democracy does not tell us to step on the flag or burn the flag.

"Democracy is not to criticise our own country abroad," he said, citing the rioting incident in London which should be taken as a lesson.

Yahya, who is also the State Minister of Agriculture and Food Industry and State Assemblyman for Petagas, said this when launching the 'Kembara Jalur Gemilang Ramadan' at the Putatan District Mosque Thursday night.
