

'Opposition woes not a plus for BN'

GEORGE TOWN: Barisan Nasional does not look at problems in opposition parties as a plus for the coalition.

Instead, Penang Umno information head Datuk Seri Dr Hilmi Yahaya said that the kind of stresses the DAP was going through offered a much needed perspective of the party's inner workings.

"The people are intelligent enough to know what is actually happening in their midst.

"I am sure (by now) they know who actually serves them better and will continue to do so in the future. What is important is that we are honest when serving the people," said Dr Hilmi, who is also Penang BN secretary.

He was commenting on the ongoing spat between DAP national chief Karpal Singh and its Penang deputy head P. Ramasamy over the "warlords-godfathers" issue.
