SIBU: Former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad will be here next Wednesday at the invitation of SibU Bumiputra Graduate Association.

Organising chairman Malsiah Jamal said Mahathir's visit was non-political and the association had invited him because he was a respectable leader of the country.

"We also want to get to know him and to show our appreciation for the development that he had brought to the country," she said.

Mahathir is scheduled to have a meeting with more than 1,000 Muslim graduates from the association, including those from Sarawak National Youth Movement (Saberkas), Community Development Department, Rajang Teachers Training Institute, SibU District Education Office, National Unity Department and state Islamic Religious Department at 3pm, RH Hotel.

Malsiah added that at the function, Mahathir was expected to talk about his latest book A Doctor in the House.

In the evening, he would attend a SibU Community Dinner at the same place before flying off to Kuala Lumpur on the same night.
