ALOR SETAR, Dec 16 (Bernama) -- Barisan Nasional (BN) may not be a 100 per cent perfect party but it is definitely better than the other coalition of political parties, MCA vice-president Datuk Chor Chee Heung said.

This has been proven with the national front's success in administering the country since independence, he said, adding that the BN is capable of doing much better.

"That is why I would like to draw the attention of Chinese voters that if they choose wrongly, a lot will change.

"What we enjoy today is due to the cooperation and unity among all races in the country. MCA has chosen to cooperate with BN component parties and we have an excellent cooperation with them," he told reporters after handing over a special allocation of the Alor Setar member of parliament.

Chor, who is Alor Setar MP, said that BN leaders adopted a moderate stance and are able to accept suggestions from various groups.
