PUTRAJAYA, Dec 1 (Bernama) -- Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Nur Zahirah today called on members of the Malaysian Girl Guides Association in Terengganu to reinforce their association's mission.

She said it was also to answer the government's call for associations to play an active role in the country's development.

"I believe the association, through strategic and systematic planning coupled with good leaders, can bring honour to Terengganu and the country," she said after meeting the association members at Istana Melawati, here.

She thanked them for their social work which included assisting children with chronic diseases, and expressed the hope that they would continue to embrace such contribution as part of their lives.
