GUA MUSANG, Dec 24 (Bernama) -- The Sultan of Kelantan, Sultan Muhammad V, presented aid, comprising essential items, to 200 Orang Asli from several remote villages in Kuala Betis here last night.

The function, held in conjunction with the sultan's visit to Gua Musang, was also attended by district officer Mat Jusoh Husin.

Adam Asu, 67, said he was glad to be in the list of recipients to receive the aid from the sultan.

The Orang Asli had put up a "sewang" performance and also demonstrated their way of cooking "grilled" tapioca and the "kelah" fish for the sultan.
