JOHOR BAHRU, Nov 26 (Bernama) -- Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) will ensure its candidates in the 13th General Election are qualified.

Its president, Datin Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail, said the party leadership had taken note of feedback that some of the candidates in the last election lacked qualification, were lame during Parliament and state assembly sittings and had not served their constituents dutifully.

"We ought to be relieved they left the party and are isolated from the struggle.

"We want to give the assurance that the choice of candidates would be discussed at the grassroots and divisions and they would be from among those who have high principles in the party's struggles and would not be easily swayed over with millions of ringgit," she said during the president's policy speech at the party's eighth national congress here today.
