KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 3 (Bernama) -- Here are some snippets of news relating to the final day of the 2011 Umno General Assembly at Putra World Trade Centre (PWTC) here today.

SOUVENIRS FROM PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

Souvenirs like special name-tags, key-chains, brooches and stickers made by persons with disabilities (OKU) are among the attractions for visitors at the assembly.

"Among the most sought-after souvenirs are the name-tags because we will print the buyer's name on it in less than two minutes," said the booth owner, M.Kumaran, 51.

He said the booth was opened with the cooperation of Perlis Social Welfare Department and all proceed would be donated to OKU centres in Perlis.

SALE OF PERSONAL COLLECTION FOR PUTERI UMNO CARING FUND

Umno leaders and famous artistes' personal items and collections, such as books, cufflinks, necktie and clothes are also being sold at Preloved Charity Shop at the PWTC.

The sale is aimed at raising money for Puteri Umno Caring Fund.

Among Umno leaders who donated the items are Umno Vice-President Datuk Seri Shafie Apdal, Melaka Chief Minister Datuk Seri Mohd Ali Rustam, as well as actor Zed Zaidi and actress Norniswara, said Puteri Umno Entrepreneurship and Economy Development Bureau chairman Norsabrina Mohd Noor.

She said each exclusive item would be sold only to the highest bidder.
