KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 3 (Bernama) -- The Wanita Umno movement has pledged to turn all the 222 parliamentary constituencies as fortresses for the Wanita Barisan Nasional (BN) machinery in the 13th general election.

Wanita Umno head Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil said the movement's machinery would work together with all the Umno wings as well as those of the component parties at the branch and divisional levels to ensure that this objective was achieved.

The tasks and trust given by the party would be fulfilled by Wanita Umno with full commitment to ensure that the BN achieved a handsome victory in the next general election, said Shahrizat when winding up the debate at the Umno General Assembly 2011, here.

"Wanita is not afraid, even if the thunderbolt divides the earth, even if the storm hits the ocean, even if the storm destroys the wilderness, even if the hurricane hits the village, we will continue to champion the party's struggles," she said.

Shahrizat also repeated the Wanita Umno pledge to continue to be loyal to the party and its top leadership.

"To Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor (the Prime Minister's wife), Wanita wishes to record its gratitude and congratulations for her resoluteness and patience in assisting the struggle for the development of women and the family on this fortunate land and even at the global level, besides looking after our 'big boss' most efficiently," she said.
