PAPAR (Sabah), Dec 18 (Bernama) -- Pacts of opposition political parties will not undermine the work of Umno and other Barisan Nasional components in continuing to serve the people, said Puteri Umno chief Datuk Rosnah Abdul Rashid Shirlin.

"We must have trust in the ability of the people to determine for themselves which party can serve them and champion their plight," she told reporters after launching a "back-to-school" programme, here Sunday.

She said the BN wanted the people to know that it had never ignored them throughout its years of administrating the country.

Rosnah, who is deputy health minister, was asked to comment on the formation of the United Borneo Alliance comprising opposition parties in Sabah and Sarawak.
