KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 16 (Bernama) -- Umno president Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will deliver an important message to Umno Youth and Puteri members on Sunday as a prelude to the party's general assembly.

Puteri Umno chief Datuk Rosnah Abdul Rashid Shirlin said the message was important as the general assembly would likely be the final before the 13th general election.

She said the prime minister was expected to deliver the address at 1pm at the Putra World Trade Centre here.

"The entire leadership of Umno Youth and Puteri are expected to attend the address," she told reporters at Parliament lobby here Wednesday.

Umno deputy president Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin is also expected to attend be present.

Rosnah, who is also the deputy health minister, said like Umno Youth, the Puteri wing has been recognised as a catalyst in the Umno and Barisan Nasional's struggle and transformation as it represented the voice of young people.

The Umno general assembly will kick off with a pre-council meeting on Nov 29 followed by the assemblies of the Wanita, Youth and Puteri wings the next day and the general assembly proper from Dec 1 to 3.
