KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 1 (Bernama) -- Umno president Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak wants party members to appreciate his policy speech at the Umno General Assembly 2011 and to bring back the message to their respective areas to serve the party and people.

The Prime Minister hoped the inspiration created at the assembly this time could make the Umno machinery to be more energetic to work as hard as possible in facing the next general election.

"I believe everyone of us can set a high target and benchmark, where our properly planned work programmes can overcome the opposition," he said at the luncheon with the Pekan Umno division, here today.

On his policy speech this morning, Najib said: "The gist of my speech is the difference between Umno member and Umno people. I hope we instil this in our heart and mind.

"If he is an Umno man, he is obedient, loyal, hardworking and loves the party, and has never betrayed the party. This is the main message I try to impart, besides the history of the party's struggles as well as the new challenges and whatever adaptations that we can carry out as a political organisation," he said.
