KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 22 (Bernama) -- The police today obtained a court order to remand a businessman to help in investigations into the National Feedlot Centre (NFC) funds and the purchase of a luxury condominium in the federal capital.

The remand order until tomorrow was issued against the 45-year-old man by magistrate Tengku Eliana Tuan Kamarulzaman this afternoon at the Bukit Jalil Police Station Temporary Detention Centre, near here.

The man, who was taken in a police car, arrived at the Bukit Jalil Police Station at 9am.

Officers from the Bukit Aman Commercial Crime Division were believed to have quizzed the man from 3pm to 6pm.

Issues on the NFC cropped up following the Auditor-General's Report 2010 in October which stated that the NFC failed to fulfill the target of its formation while the opposition claimed there were misappropriations in the management of its funds.
