ALOR SETAR, Dec 29 (Bernama) -- Besides the Barisan Nasional's (BN) federal level manifesto, the Kedah BN will also be introducing an additional manifesto specific to the state for the coming general election.

Kedah BN chairman Datuk Ahmad Bashah Md Hanipah said the state-level manifesto was drawn up by a special committee represented by the various parties in the coalition as well as community leaders and academicians.

He said the manifesto focused on fulfilling the people's aspirations and bring back the state on a proper footing after enduring "dim" years under the opposition.

"The content of the manifesto will only be announced when the date of the general election is announced and I am confident the people will receive it well," he told reporters after handing over aid contributions to 14 Housing Estate Welfare Associations in the Bakar Bata state constituency here, today.

Each of the associations received RM3,000 cash. Also present was State MCA chief Datuk Chong Itt Chew.
