KOTA KINABALU, Dec 31 (Bernama) -- All members of the Barisan Nasional (BN) election machinery must explain to the people on the BN's success in administering the country all this while.

Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman, who is also Sabah BN chairman, said the success in explaining the government efforts could convince the people to reject the opposition in the 13th general election.

"It is our responsibility to explain to all the voters on the BN programmes and policies to show the government's concern for the well-being of the people.

"We see that since Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak became the prime minister, numerous efforts and developments had been carried out for the people such as the abolition of the school fees, the RM100 payment to school students and the RM500 payment to families earning below RM3,000 per month," he said at a dinner organised by the Sabah Wanita Umno, here last night.

Musa said the BN was not a coalition of parties that liked to make empty promises as was being done by the opposition to the extent that the people were facing hardship.

Besides explaining to the people on the success of the BN, the election machinery must also be united and work as a team to ensure victory for all BN candidates in the 13th general election.

Earlier, Wanita Umno head Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil, who is also the Women, Family and Community Development Minister, said BN members must give their support to the prime minister in the next general election by assisting and supporting all BN candidates.
