SHAH ALAM, Jan 4 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is scheduled to meet 20,000 industrialists on Saturday at Proton's Centre of Excellence near here in conjunction with a 'Meet-The-People' programme in Selangor for two days beginning this Friday.

Selangor Umno Liaison Committee secretary Datuk Seri Mohd Zin Mohamed said the Prime Minister would be meeting industrialists from all sectors in the state as well as attend a lunch function organised by Proton.

He said the Prime Minister would also be presenting two cars contributed by Proton as lucky draw prizes at the event.

"Datuk Seri Najib will begin his visit this time in Hulu Selangor on Friday by meeting Felda Gedangsa settlers and performing his Friday prayers at Kuala Kubu Bharu Masjid Pekan.

This would be followed by a lunch with the people and leaders of four Parliamentary constituencies namely Hulu Langat, Sabak Bernam, Sungai Besar and Tanjung Karang," he told a media conference here.

Mohd Zin said the Prime Minister would also launch the national-level 1Malaysia Community at Bukit Sentosa on the same day.

He said on Saturday, Najib would also be meeting 2,500 Federal agency officers at the Shah Alam Convention Centre here.
