KUALA LUMPUR, Oct 19 – Datuk Seri Najib Razak today invited football fans to watch the English Premier League match between Manchester United (MU) and Manchester City (MC) with him at his official residence in Seri Perdana, Putrajaya this Sunday at 8pm.

The Prime Minister said in his website www.1malaysia.com.my that those interested may apply here <http://bit.ly/rmH8tz> to attend and may bring along a friend.

Najib, who is a staunch MU supporter said registration will be open until 5pm tomorrow.

“After attending several sessions watching football matches with many people and youths at Jalan Bukit Bintang and Putrajaya, I have decided that another session will be held this Sunday. October 23.

“This is the time I can ‘lepak’ (spend time) with my Facebook and Twitter friends,” Bernama Online quoted the PM as saying.
