JITRA, Sept 10 — The Barisan Nasional (BN) publicity and information bureau is currently organising a series of 14 “premier” briefing sessions to explain current issues to Umno branch and divisional committee members in every state, Bernama Online reported today.

The sessions are being conducted to prepare party members for the next general election, said bureau chairman Datuk Ahmad Maslan.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak launched the sessions in Kuala Lumpur on July 10 and the initiative will conclude in Sabah and Sarawak on October 3.
