KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 24 — The home minister is reported by The Star Online as being the recipient of two bullets in the mail today.

Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Hussein said that the bullets were contained in a book that had a section cut out of it.

There was an accompanying note with a threatening message handwritten in Malay, he (picture) added.

The items are believed to have been posted to his office in Putrajaya where they were subsequently discovered by a clerk this afternoon.

They have since been surrendered to the police who are currently investigating the matter.
