GEORGE TOWN, Sept 14 (Bernama) -- A notice of demand has been issued in relation to the state Umno's demand for Chief Minister Lim Guan Eng to apologise within seven days or face a RM30 million defamation suit.

Abdul Rauf Abdul Samad, an officer from the Jahaberdeen & Co Advocates and Solicitors, representing the state Umno, said he had handed over the notice at the chief minister's office about 11.10am today.

"The letter was handed over to a staff at the chief minister's office and the seven-day period starts today," he told reporters when met at Tun Abdul Razak Complex (Komtar) here.

He did not disclose the content of the letter but said that it had to do with Umno's demand for apology.

It was reported yesterday that state Umno chief Datuk Zainal Abidin Osman had demanded an apology from Lim for allegedly accusing that Penang Umno was behind the street demonstrations held outside his office and on the Penang Bridge on July 1, and the arson attempt at Penang DAP's office on Aug 17.
