TAWAU, Aug 17 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has approved a RM1 million allocation to provide zinc and plywood for the poor in the Kalabakan parliamentary constituency under the Poor People's Assistance Programme, said Kalabakan MP Datuk Abdul Ghapur Salleh.

He said the list of aid recipients was being studied to ensure aid was only given to those eligible.

"After this Hari Raya, I will be visiting the houses of each applicant to ascertain the needs of zinc and plywood," he told reporters after officiating a contribution presentation programme in conjunction with Ramadan and the Hari Raya to members of the Tawau Fishermen's Association organised by the association here Wednesday.

Ghapur had earlier said that 200 houses of poor Kalabakan residents would be repaired for the comfort of residents this year.
