

Media An Important Tool To Help Ministry Improve People's Well-being, Says Shahrizat Bernama August 22, 2011

KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 22 (Bernama) -- Women, Family and Community Development Minister Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil said the ministry views the media as an important tool in carrying out efforts to improve the people's well-being.

"To us (ministry), the role of the media is important because they are willing to work 24 hours a day, 365 days in a year to ensure there is sharing of information with the society," she said.

Speaking at the ministry's breaking of fast with the media at the Sime Darby Convention Center here tonight, she said the media is the vision of the current leadership.

She said the close cooperation extended by the media had also helped the ministry to get closer to its target groups.

About 1,000 media representatives, including Malaysian National News Agency (Bernama) chairman Datuk Abdul Rahman Sulaiman and its General Manager, Datuk Hasnul Hassan, attended the function.
