KOTA BAHARU, Sept 4 (Bernama) -- Kelantan Umno has appointed all the chairmen of its 14 divisions as election directors of their respective parliamentary constituencies.

Its chief Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed Empat said they would appoint their own deputy election directors for the state seats in their respective constituencies.

The move to appoint them as election directors was to ensure Kelantan Umno's election machinery was in "top gear" as the next general election could be called at any time, he told reporters at an Aidifitri open house hosted by Kelantan Umno here today.

He added that Kelantan Umno would go all out to re-capture Kelantan from PAS.

The Barisan Nasional, of which Umno is backbone, lost the state to PAS in 1990. There are 45 seats in the Kelantan legislature.
