GEORGE TOWN, 5 Sept (Bernama) -- Parti Kesejahteraan Insan Tanah Air (Kita) Penang chairman Tan Tee Beng has lodged a report to the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) asking the commission to investigate Penang chief Minister Lim Guan Eng, the Penang Island Municipal Council (MPPP) and Penang Development Corporation (PDC) regarding a RM5mil car park at the foot of Penang Hill.

Speaking to reporters in front of the MACC office after lodging the report here today, he said he wanted the MACC to investigate if there were any irregularities in the project.

He alleged that although construction of the car park had been completed, it was still not open for public.
