SUNGAI PETANI, Oct 8 (Bernama) -- Former MIC president Datuk Seri S. Sammy Vellu described the 2012 Budget tabled by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Friday as a holistic approach that would benefit all races.

He said the 2012 Budget tabled by Najib who is also the Finance Minister was a transformation because it focused on the needs of the people and economic growth.

"I have never seen such a budget in my 33 years in Parliament. This budget has taken into account the wishes of the people above all other aspects.

"This shows that the Prime Minister is a leader who looks after the welfare of the Bumiputera, Chinese, Indians and other races in the country," he told reporters after 4th AIMST University Convocation in Bedong near here Saturday.

Sammy Vellu who is also the AIMST University Chancellor said he hoped the people would give their undivided support to Najib's administration to overcome all the problems faced by the people thus far.

"Najib always listened to the problems faced by the people and followed up with solutions. On that matter I feel the Indian community are enjoying a better relationship because their wishes have been fulfilled," he said.
