KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 18 (Bernama) -- Despite his busy schedule, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak took some time off to watch the "Suara Kami" concert organised by pay television station Astro at the Merdeka Stadium here Saturday night.

Najib, who was accompanied by wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, received a rousing welcome when he arrived at the concert venue, much to the delight of those present who did not expect the country's number one leader to be with them to watch the show.

In his Facebook and Twitter, Najib wrote that he attended the concert to be with Malaysia's younger generation.

He also posted several pictures taken at the concert.

The concert was held in conjunction with Astro's 15th anniversary and the Malaysia Day celebration.
