IPOH, Sept 24 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak arrived at the Sultan Azlan Shah airport this morning for a one-day working visit to Perak.

The Prime Minister and his wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor were received by Menteri Besar Perak Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir, Defence Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, state executive councillors and leaders of Barisan Nasional component parties.

His tight schedule includes meetings with villagers and town residents, joining locals in Hari Raya Aidilfitri celebrations and opening a 1Malaysia carnival.

He and his wife will attend the wedding of Tualang Sekah state assemblywoman Nolee Asyikin Mohd Radzi at Sekolah Kebangsaan Changkat Tin.

In Sungai Siput, the Prime Minister will launch a programme for Orang Asli organised by 1Malaysia Development Berhad.

He will visit a 1Malaysia mobile clinic exhibition and a social service exhibition organised by the Felda Foundation.

The Prime Minister will be among 5,000 guests at a Hari Raya feast for the Orang Asli community at Lasah before returning to Kuala Lumpur.
