KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 12 (Bernama) -- Former MIC deputy president Datuk S. Subramaniam has been warded at the Pantai Medical Centre here Saturday to undergo brain procedures.

His sister, Sarojini, said the veteran politician underwent his first surgery this morning.

It is learnt that Subramaniam, 67, is currently undergoing the next surgery.

Sarojini said Subramaniam went to the Assunta Hospital in Petaling Jaya yesterday by himself, after encountering health problems.

He was transferred to the medical centre this morning.

Also seen at the hospital were former MIC president Datuk Seri S. Samy Vellu, Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk S. Devamany and Federal Territories and Urban Well-Being Deputy Minister Datuk M. Saravanan.

Subramaniam is a former Segamat member of parliament from 1990 to 2004, and a former deputy minister.

Among the ministries he had served were housing and local government, domestic trade and consumer affairs and agriculture.
