KOTA KINABALU, Nov 14 (Bernama) -- The Sabah's 2012 Budget will put the people's welfare first like the national budget, said Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman.

"What is important, we will help ease the burden of the people while striving to develop the state," he told reporters after opening the State Academic Excellence Convention 2011 here Monday.

Musa, who is also the state finance minister, will present the budget at the State Assembly at 3pm on Friday.

In his speech, he said Sabah needed to have knowledgeable, skilled and innovative human capital to propel the state to greater heights.
