KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 18 (Bernama) -- Starting next year, the Barisan Nasional (BN) Youth Job Fair will be made an annual event and will be held nationwide, BN Youth chief Khairy Jamaluddin said.

Khairy, who is also the organising committee chairman, said the decision was made following the encouraging response received for previous carnivals.

"We have organised six of such a carnival so far and this is the seventh. I see it as a very successful programme in helping the young generation to secure jobs.

"We will continue organising this carnival as our touch point and we will make it as an annual event," he told reporters after receiving Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin who visited the 7th BN Youth Job Fair 2011 at Putra World Trade Centre here Friday.

The three-day job fair is offering 30,000 jobs at 300 private companies, as well as government departments and agencies.

Apart from Kuala Lumpur, the BN Youth Job Fair is also scheduled to be held in Kedah, Pahang, Melaka and Sabah.
