NUSA DUA (Bali), Nov 18 (Bernama) - The Prime Minister's wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor Friday joined wives of regional leaders in visiting Rudana Museum in Ubud.

Rudana Museum is used to display and promote paintings and sculptures of artistes from Bali.

The delegation comprise wives of United Nations (UN) Secretary-General Ban Soon-taek, Singapore Prime Minister Ho Ching, Cambodian Prime Minister Hun Sen.

The other wives were that of Japanese Prime Minister Hitomi Noda, Indian Prime Minister Gursharan Kaur, Vietnamese Prime Minister Tran Thanh Kiem and Korean president Kim Yoon-Ok.

Their arrival at the museum were welcomed by Indonesian president's wife, Ani Bambang Yudhoyono and Rudana Museum director Putu Supadma Rudana.

At the end of the visit, all of them signed a plaque with the theme 'Embracing the Sincere Devotion of a Mother'.

Rosmah is in Bali to accompany Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak attend the 19th Asean Summit from Nov 17-19.
