KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 20 (Bernama) -- MyVoice, the 1Malaysia Social Media Volunteers Club launched today, garnered more than 2,000 social media practitioners in its quest to do cyber space battle against falsehoods by the opposition.

MyVoice was launched by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak during the 1Malaysia Social Media Convention held at the Putra World Trade Convention centre here.

Convention chairman Datuk Mohd Sharkar Shamsuddin said the club was open to all social media practitioners who rejected false politics and supported politics based on true information and facts.

"Those who have joined MyVoice are from the grassroots to famous bloggers, who will rebut all criticisms hurled by the opposition through blogs, Facebook, Twitter and so on," he said to Bernama.

"We respect the internet as an open platform but it needs to include more positive information and agenda in it," he added.

Mohd Shaukar said MyVoice would also promote the economic and political transformation agenda which has been and is still being carried out by the government.
