GEORGE TOWN, Nov 21 (Bernama) -- The question of who will replace Tan Sri Dr Koh Tsu Koon as the Penang Barisan Nasional (BN) chief is expected to be answered soon.

BN state secretary Datuk Seri Dr Hilmi Yahaya said he was made to understand that an announcement would be made soon.

"I was informed that there will be an announcement this week but I do not know where or who the person is," he told reporters here today when asked to comment on Koh's replacement.

Koh, the Party Gerakan president had on Thursday announced that he would not contest in the coming General Election, a decision that meant he may have decided to relinquish the Penang BN chief's post.

Hilmi said all component parties would accept and support whoever was picked to replace Koh.

"We (Umno) have never demanded for the post and will continue to carry on what has been practiced," he said.
