KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 22 (Bernama) -- PAS Youth has cancelled their initial plan to organise a demonstration to protest the Elton John concert at Genting Highlands Tuesday night.

PAS youth chief Nasrudin Hassan when contacted confirmed that the plan to demonstrate was discontinued even though they did not agree with the concert staged by the singer.

"Yes, there is no demo tonight. It was a decision made from the state PAS leadership," he said briefly without explaining the main reason for the cancellation.

Previously, PAS had objected a concert by a popular singer, Adam Lambert last year, when Nasrudin led about 200 PAS youth members who staged a demonstration on the night of the concert.

A news portal quoted Pahang PAS youth chief Shahril Azman Abdul Halim as saying that the demonstration was cancelled because the party wanted to give attention to the preparation of the upcoming election.
