ABU DHABI, Nov 23 (Bernama) -- Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, wife of the Malaysian prime minister, is scheduled to deliver a special address at the Women in Leadership Forum (WIL) 2011 here Wednesday.

Rosmah will deliver the speech, titled "Engaging and Empowering Women in Business and the Economy", at the Emirates Palace Hotel.

She arrived at the Abu Dhabi International Airport at about 10.30 pm (Malaysian time) Tuesday and was received by Malaysia's ambassador to the United Arab Emirates (UAE), Datuk Yahaya Abdul Jabar.

The Nov 23-24 forum features superior networking, inspirational speakers and potential business opportunities.

The attendees include members of Gulf royal families, first ladies from key regional economies, corporate executives, human resource directors of leading organisations, business owners as well as department heads and managers.

Also taking part in the forum is Prof Datuk Dr Mazlan Othman of Malaysia, who is director of the United Nations Office for Outer Space Affairs. She is scheduled to feature at a panel discussion on "Women Breaking Barriers in Men-Only Environments".

Rosmah will also attend the Sheikha Shamsa Bint Suhail Award for Creative Women presentation.

Sheikha Shamsa is the wife of UAE President Sheikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan.

Since 2009, the WIL series has connected over 1,500 successful, international heads of commerce who have inspired the women business leaders of tomorrow.
