KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 24 (Bernama) -- The Umno Youth will discuss issues on political transformation and preparations for the coming general election at the party general assembly which begins this Tuesday, its chief, Khairy Jamaluddin, said.

"We are highly spirited to discuss the two issues at the assembly," he told reporters after the Barisan Nasional (BN) Youth executive council meeting at the Putra World Trade Centre Thursday.

Khairy said the people should understand and support the political transformation brought by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak because it encompassed measures which could further strengthen democracy in the country.

He said the BN Youth had made a resolution to support the concept of 'winnable candidate' emphasised by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

"We also hope this concept will be accepted by everybody and there will be no one who will question the selection of candidates by the party leadership," he added.

Khairy also welcome the amendments to Section 15(5)(a) of the Universities and University Colleges Act 1971 to allow students above the age of 21 to join political parties.

He also announced the BN Youth official slogan for the coming general election, which was 'BN pilihan org muda' (BN the choice for young people).
