KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 29 (Bernama) -- In a bid to reach out to the younger generation, the 2011 Umno General Assembly held at the Putra World Trade Centre today saw the introduction of a leisure programme known as "Vokal-X".

The one-day programme offers a platform for the young people to show off their talents such as playing musical instruments, reciting poems and singing, Umno Information Chief Datuk Ahmad Maslan said when opening the programme.

During the event, Ahmad also delivered a poem written by National Laureate Usman Awang entitled "Melayu" and a pantun on the struggles of the Malays.

"Vokal-X" organising chairman Razie Nasarruddin said the programme would inadvertently show that Umno had always supported and provided a platform for the younger generation to participate in the assembly, even by taking a different approach.

The programme also featured local rock band "Jinbara" and a teenage group known as "Trickelaysia" who performed a dance performance with elements of martial arts and gymnastics.
