KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 29 (Bernama) -- The Wanita Umno-led Skuad Sayang should not only focus on welfare activities but to also disseminate correct information about the party to the people, said the wife of the prime Minister and Umno president, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor.

She said, in facing the 13th General Election, the Sayang squad needed to go to the field to channel information to counter the opposition's wild accusations and lies against Barisan Nasional (BN) leaders.

"Keeping quiet will only weaken Umno and BN. If this attitude continues, it will give the impression that all the accusations are true," she said when speaking at a Skuad Sayang dinner function at the Putra World Trade Centre (PWTC), here, Monday.

Rosmah said Skuad Sayang needed to always serve the community as their good deeds like giving aid would touch the hearts of the people to continue supporting the government.

"We must always be united to serve the people regardless of our rank and status," she said, adding that unity could ensure continued development, enabling Umno to have a place in the hearts and minds of the people.

"It cannot be denied that there are members who are two-faced, are thorns in the flesh who aim to jeopardise the existing government for personal interest," she said.

The Skuad Sayang which comprises members of the women's wings in BN, was formed to help the poor and victims of natural disasters.

It was part of the activities under the Sayang project launched by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak two years ago.

The projects carried out under the concept of welfare, voluntarism and community meet the aspirations of Umno and BN to fulfil the needs of people at the grassroots level.
