KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 29 (Bernama) -- Johor Umno lifted the overall People's Champion title while Kelantan emerged the runner-up and Melaka, third.

Thirteen Umno divisions were also adjudged winners at the division level.

The winners were announced after Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak briefed delegates to the Umno General Assembly 2011 at the Putra World Trade Centre here Tuesday.

Speaking to reporters, Umno information chief Datuk Ahmad Maslan said Najib presented the first prize to Johor Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Abdul Ghani Othman.

Ahmad said he hoped the programme would spur party members to work hard to restore the people's confidence in Umno.

Introduced in January last year, the programme entails leadership cohesion among Umno divisions, and the Wanita, Youth and Puteri wings in the manifestation of the "People First, Performance Now" battle cry.

Johor walked away with RM5,000, a trophy and a certificate.
