KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 29 (Bernama) -- It's that time of the year again, when the Putra World Trade Centre (PWTC) is dominated by women wearing red-coloured headscarves.

Realising the potential market, the PWTC branch of Ariani boutique is introducing a new collection of combined red and black headscarves for their customers, mostly members of Wanita Umno.

Its manager, Mohd Fauzi Nazir said the headscarves could only be purchased exclusively from the boutique.

"The price for Ariani headscarves starts at RM110 and in conjunction with the Umno General Assembly, we are giving 20 per cent discount for every purchase and Ariani card members will also enjoy an additional 10 per cent discount," he said.

On another development, Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Mohd Shafie Apdal today presented Yayasan Pelajaran Mara (YPM) scholarships amounting to RM34.4 million to 86 excellent students who would be pursuing their education locally and abroad.

Each of them received RM400,000 to pursue a diploma at Universiti Industri Selangor (Unisel) before leaving for Japan for their degrees.
