KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 30 (Bernama) -- Umno Youth delegates today described the policy speech delivered by their chief Khairy Jamaluddin at the Umno Youth assembly as a morale booster in view of the upcoming 13th general election.

"I'm so lucky to have a leader like him. I'm sure that other delegates are also highly motivated by his speech," said a delegate from Perak, Mohd Noor Abdul Hamid.

Mohd Noor, who is also Bagan Serai Umno Youth assistant secretary, said he also hoped to see more young leaders filling top positions in Umno in the future.

Bakri Umno chief Mohd Fuad Tukirin said Khairy's speech had also instilled a fighting spirit and love for the party among Umno Youth members.

Bukit Bendera Umno chief Rafizal Rahim, on the other hand, said that the delegates' reverberating shouts of "Hidup Umno" during Khairy's speech also proved that Umno Youth was ready to fight for the party and that his speech would be the foundation of the transformation in their struggles.

"Our members will remember his words as a morale booster for them in strengthening the movement, developing new generation and implementing the transformation programmes in the country," he said.

Meanwhile, Petaling Jaya Selatan Umno Youth chief Ridzuan Mahidin also called on the government to take seriously Khairy's proposal to see a Youth Bank be set up.

"Most of today's youths are burdened with credit card debts. With the Youth Bank in place, their financial issues will be systematically managed and hence, enable them to avoid making new debts," he said.
