KOTA BAHARU, Nov 4 (Bernama) -- The Sultan of Kelantan, Sultan Muhammad V today urged the people to be thankful as they are fortunate to live in a peaceful and prosperous country with the blessings of Allah.

He also called on the people to avoid getting involved in any conflicts or misunderstandings as they needed to focus on future challenges.

"We should be thankful and pray for happiness and perform our obligations to Allah and get blessings as well as rewards from Allah.

"Let's avoid conflicts and misunderstanding and forgive each other, think about the future of our families in the more challenging world," he said in his message in conjunction with Aidiladha celebration, here Friday.

While wishing everyone a happy Aidiladha, he said Muslims should also be thankful for their h
