KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 8 (Bernama) -- Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) does not support the "Seksualiti Merdeka 2011" programme organised to seek individual freedom in issues concerning sexual relations in the country.

PKR advisor Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim said the party, which had a meeting on the issue recently, had decided not to support the programme.

He said this at a press conference at the Parliament lobby, here today.

The programme, which was held for the fourth time since 2008, should have started from Nov 2 to 13 but was not continued by the organisers after getting strong opposition from various groups as the programme was claimed to promote the rights of lesbians, bisexuals, gays and transsexuals in the country.
