SHAH ALAM, Nov 9 (Bernama) -- A State Assemblyman who continuously raised out his dissatisfaction over Menteri Besar Tan Sri Khalid Ibrahim's reply to his supplementary question was directed to leave the conference.

State Assembly speaker Datuk Teng Chang Khim made the decision under Regulation 44 (2) Standing Rules and also suspended Batang Kali State Assemblyman Mohd Isa Abu Kasim from the sitting for one day.

Teng made the decision following Mohd Isa's refusal to stop questioning Abdul Khalid who did not answer his supplementary question on the specific programme for government servants under the policy 'Merakyatkan Ekonomi Selangor'(MES).

The speaker said he felt Abdul Khalid had answered Mohd Isa's supplementary question because public servants in Selangor were enjoying all facilities under MES as they were also the people of Selangor.

Mohd Isa who continued to protest was escorted out of the dewan.
