KUALA LUMPUR: Former Bar Council president Datuk Ambiga Sreenevasan yesterday denied she was involved in the organisation of the annual sexuality rights festival, Seksualiti Merdeka 2011.

"For the record, this is an event that has taken place since 2008 drawing little attention from the public until now.

"Further, for the record, I am not an organiser of this event. I was invited to officiate it on the 9th of November 2011, which I agreed to do in my personal capacity," she said in response to a report that she was involved in organising the event.

Ambiga, who is no stranger to controversy, is once again caught up in a media storm after her involvement in Sexualiti Merdeka made the news following the Bersih 2.0 rally on July 9 where she was the steering committee chairman.
