KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 10 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today called on Malaysians residing in London and its vicinity to be careful following the riots in that area.

"I hope Malaysians in London and the surrounding areas to be wary and to look after their own security," he said briefly in his Twitter social networking website, here today.

Najib was also concerned when told that a Malaysian student, Asyraf Haziq Rosli had been assaulted and robbed during the incident.

The riots began in London several days ago after a man was shot dead by police in Tottenham, north London before spreading to other towns including Birmingham, Liverpool, Bristol and Manchester.
