IPOH, 10 Jan (Bernama) -- "Sentuhan Kasih" -- a Barisan Nasional outreach programme -- will be the main agenda for 135 Barisan Nasional Backbenchers Club (BNBBC) members during a retreat in north Perak on Jan 12-14.

BNBBC chairman Datuk Mohd Nadzri Ismail said the programme seeks to bring leaders and the people closer.

"The programme this time is very different from those in the past. This time the members have more time to mingle with the people," he told Bernama here, today.

He said through various activities, the elected representatives would get to know more deeply the problems faced by the people.

The programme, which will take place in eight parliamentary and 20 state constituencies, will be opened by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak in Simpang, Taiping on Jan 14.

He hoped the members would sincerely listen to the people, and for the people to get to know the elected representatives.

The BNBBC members will be staying with a adopted families in 135 villages for three days and two nights.

They must also visit 20 houses in every village to identify the problems they faced and spread information on the progress of the government's transformation programmes.
