KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 3 (Bernama) -- The Federal Territories and Urban Well-being Ministry is waiting for the Kuala Lumpur City Hall (DBKL) report on the proposal to demolish the Taman Tun Dr Ismail (TTDI) market, said its minister Datuk Raja Nong Chik Raja Zainal Abidin.

He said it was hoped the report, expected to be received today, would help to resolve the matter, which was being protested by the market traders and local residents.

Media reports stated that DBKL planned to demolish the market to make way for a condominium project without discussing it with affected parties first.
